THE NEWS IN DAVIE COUNTY.

[From the Mocksville Times] Rev. Dr. W. V. Tudor, pastor of Grandy Street M. E. Church, Norfolk, Va.. is to preach the baccalaureate sermon of Trinity College.

Married, in Chapel Hill, recently,

Married, in Chapel Hill, recensive Mr. Juo. A. Hendricks, of this county to Miss May Mason, daughter of Jas. Mason, Esq., of Chapel Hill. Mr. Hendricks is a very popular young man. He represented this county in the last General Assembly.

Last summer it will be remembered that one J.H. P. Leigh was elected principal of Cana Academy, this county. He arrived with his family, which consisted of his wife and one child, some time in August and opened the fall receion of the school a few weeks later. He had charge of the school only about one month, during which time, as we have before stated, "he became too fond of his lady "he he has been goin' to Sun-and with the facts that were furnished us by our informants, we felt justifiable in publishing the following paragraph in regard to Mr. Leigh's departure from Cana, and which appeared in our issue of September 13th, 1889:

successful attempt at wholesale poisoning was made by two little colored boys at the residence of Mr. J. M. Vaughn, in Madison. As the family ble physic of Mr. Vaughn, which at present consiets of himself and wife and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Vaughn (Miss Luola being absent), were partaking of their breakfest, a strange odor and taste were detected in the coffee by Mr. Vaughn, and calling attention to the Vaughn, and calling attention to the fact it was quickly found that the morning beverage instead of pure Rio consisted largely of carbolic acid. Mr. Yaughn, Sr., was made very sick from the small quantity he had taken before discovering the poison. An in vestigation was made, and suspicion rested on two bound boys, both color ed, and on being threated, the younger one, named Simon, confessed that he and William had put the poison in the coffee with the hope of gaining their freedom by murdering the whole family.

The transition from long, lingering and painful sickness to robust health marks an epoch in the life of the individual. Such a remarkable event is treasured in the memory and the agency whereby the good health has been attained is gratefully blessed. Hence it is that so much is heard in praise of Electric Bitters. So many feel they owe their restoration to health, to the use of the individual.
